HELP DURHAM STOP HATE

If you have suffered or witnessed an incident of hate, bullying and harassment, sexual misconduct and violence, or domestic violence, let us know so we can support you.

REPORT ANONYMOUSLY OR WITH YOUR CONTACT DETAILS

If reporting with your contact details, a designated member of our staff will be in touch to help. The option to report anonymously is for visitors to the university or for any student who does not want to share their identity.

HERE FOR EVERYONE

This tool is designed to provide information and advice to those who have faced harassment or violence based on, for example, religion, race, gender or gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, or age.

REPORT AND SUPPORT

Students and staff can anonymously report incidents of:

- bullying/harassment,
- sexual misconduct/violence,
- hate incidents
- domestic abuse.

or visit: reportandsupport.durham.ac.uk
or email: report.support@durham.ac.uk

What happens next when a report is submitted?

An anonymous report will be used to monitor issues across the University community to help identify appropriate prevention and response interventions.

Reports with contact details will be assigned to a designated member of staff who will contact the reporting party within 24 hours or the next working day, where possible. Only authorised members of staff will have access to information shared through the system.
